

2019 NEWBORN, CAKE SMASHES & STYLISHED

About Me

CHRISTINA PARKER

This is a period of transition. The past few years, I surrounded myself with small children, that call me, by a version of my childhood name, "Miss Chrissy". I had a camera in my hand, as I taught and took daily photographs at my own preschool, called "Playtography". Playtography is involving into something new.

This period of transition, finds me with a with a lot of new creative ideas. I spend part of my week focusing on creating sets, and photography for clients and me.

I have a super supportive husband, four children, with one daughter in love, and one puppy Aspen, who loves our attention.

I am always up for an adventure, especially if it involves driving across America, a plane ticket, or a roller coaster at DisneyWorld. I enjoy figuring out the best way to help a business make a connection to their customers through photography and helping create beautiful products, that all my clients will enjoy and treasure!
